HOUSTON GRAND OPERA

Wants you!

Do you love opera? Would you like to share the stage with world famous opera singers?
NO PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE NECESSARY!

Houston Grand Opera is holding an open casting call for Supernumeraries on

But what is a Super?

Supernumeraries (Supers) appear on stage in non-singing roles, much like being an extra in a movie. Supers can be anything from guards to ladies in waiting, to judges, executioners, prisoners, you name it! Not only can you be part of the magic and thrill of live theater, but you also receive a small fee and tickets to the opera. FABULOUS!

If you just can't wait to perform on stage at the Wortham Theater Center and play an integral part in the creation of world-class opera, join us for an open casting call on Saturday, August 13, 2011 from 10am-1pm

"...the next time I was on stage was with Frederica von Stade (affectionately known as "Flicka") and Joyce DiDonato. What an honor!!" -Rauli Garcia (Dead Man Walking Super)
